

Michener Center for Writers Presents Jane Miller

Posted on March 15, 2018 by Jessica Sinn

Acclaimed poet Jane Miller will give a reading at a Michener Center for Writers event on Tuesday, march 20, 7:30 to 9 p.m. at the Peter O'Donnell Jr. Building (POB), Avaya Auditorium (room 2.302).

Miller is the author of the poetry volumes Thunderbird, A Palace of Pearls, Wherever You Lay Your Head, Memory at These Speeds: New & Selected Poems, August Zero, and American Odalisque, all from Copper Canyon Press.

Her honors include fellowships from the NEA and the Guggenheim Foundation, and she serves as adviser and jurist to numerous distinguished national book and poetry prizes. Who Is Trixie the Trasher? and Other Questions is forthcoming.

Miller is the Michener Center's visiting poetry faculty this semester.

This entry was posted in Literary Events and tagged Jane Miller, Michener Center for Writers by Jessica Sinn. Bookmark the permalink [<https://sites.utexas.edu/shelflife/2018/03/15/michener-center-for-writers-presents-jane-miller/>].