THE 19th EGG ALLOCATION

The Ministry of Food announces the completion of distribution of the 18th egg, and in most areas the major part of the 19th egg allocation has been made available to retailers. During the 19th allocation, registered customers will receive one egg per allocation; priority consumers will receive eggs at the rate of three per week.

Retailers are requested to display a notice in their shop advising customers that eggs are available and the number of the allocation being distributed.
