A.R.8 Calling for the Beautification of Pease Fountain and East Mall Area

- WHEREAS: The University of Texas at Austin is home of the largest institution of higher learning in the United States and is visited by thousands of Texans, Americans, and International Citizens every year,
- WHEREAS: Thousands of visitors, students, faculty, and staff persons pass by Pease Fountain everyday,
- WHEREAS: The fountain is a popular site for relaxing, photography, and observation of the vistas of the University campus, the Main Building and Tower, as well as the LBJ Museum and LBJ Fountain,
- WHEREAS: There is currently only grass landscaping in front of Pease Fountain,
- WHEREAS: The Department of Physical Plant has consulted with landscaping architects to create a landscaping concept that would beautify the area and proclaim the name of this premier institution of higher learning for all to enjoy.
- BE IT RESOLVED: The student body of The University of Texas at Austin calls upon the UT Administration to support and aid the Department of Physical Plant with the beautification of Pease Fountain and East Mall Area.
