PAPERS, PANELS, AND WORKSHOPS

April 16th - 18th, 2010

The Texas Union

The University of Texas

Austin, Texas

Thank you for your interest in participating in the first ever Feminist Action Project conference. What follows is the information needed to present a paper, create a panel, or put on a workshop. Students, faculty, university staff, and community members are all welcome to submit applications to the Feminist Action Project 2010 Conference programming committee. Submissions will be accepted from The University of Texas at Austin as well as from other universities.

“Those of us who dare, toil not to force our way upon others but simply to make a space in which all are honored: capitalism and communalism, the patriarch and the matriarch, the exiled settler and the indigenous nomad, and so on. It is this imperative for true pluralism that runs through and connects, however tenuously, all of our different criticisms, all of our different feminisms. It is this that we must
