

students is scanning them into our server, often increasing the contrast. I hope he will finish next week. If you can get internet access, you can see the result.

I had about 11 days in Athens (Greece) after I left the students, and was lucky enough to discover that the Norwegian Institute was hosting a symposium on ritual in Bronze Age + Classical Greece, and the Goulandris museum had an exhibit of Mark Cameron's reconstructions of the Knossos

ΜΟΥΣΕΙΟ ΗΡΑΚΛΕΙΟΥ. Πινακίδες της Γραμμικής γραφής Β από την Κνωσό.
MUSEUM OF HERAKLEION. Tablets with Linear B script from Knossos.
MUSÉE D'HERAKLEION. Tablettes en Linéaire B. Knossos.
MUSEUM VON HERAKLEION. Tafeln mit der Linearschrift B aus Knossos.

ΧΡΟΜΟΓΡΑΦΗΣ: Χ. ΑΝΤΩΝΙΔΗΣ

Ελλάδα Greece Grèce Griechenland

© "HANNIBAL"

31, Klissodotos Street Ano Petralona. Teleph. 3453941. Athens 118 52 Greece

01.8.92 12.00
frescoes.

H 334

Jose in his last e-mail message to me said that he is completing the revisions to the transcription part of Pop N 4, and will be in the U.S. in the autumn. Do you know when and where this will happen? Thanks for the recipes - the one for the English plum pudding looks interesting, but does not say if you boil it in a bag or not. I will try the chess tarts though.

it looks like a pecan pie sort of thing.

ROTH