

BRYN MAWR COLLEGE
BRYN MAWR, PENNSYLVANIA

DEPARTMENT OF GREEK

Saturday

Dear Emmett,

Enclosed is Fr 1260, which CWB sent for your use. Found, as I remember, in Room 47 in 1956.

Chadwick reports, as you will have heard, that he is not going out to Greece till mid-June. So I shall see him. Palmer writes great screeds of protest on missing link; sample sentence:

"I now turn to your chisel, which I examine methodologically since the heuristic operations when made fully explicit give the jury a scale of points for assessing their verdict."

Swanmore is looking for a substitute ^{for} next year which may be a permanent appointment hereafter.

All best,
Mabel
