Dear Dr. Stenzel:

Thanks very much for your very kind letter of August 20. I assure you that leaving my many friends in Houston and Texas was hard to do, but after all I have spent about twenty years in the Mid-Continent Area and returning to Tulsa was most pleasant.

As regards our most pleasant contacts in the past, I sincerely hope that these will not stop and from time to time I shall hope to contact you in search of promising boys. Should you, at any time, have someone that you would like to recommend, I will do my level best to take him on. After all, a company can usually find a place for a good man no matter how full their staff may be.

Should you by chance come to Tulsa, please call on me as I shall be very happy to see you again.

Yours very truly,

J. W. Inkster
