The Fight for Freedom and Justice: A Forum with Formerly Incarcerated Black Women Leading the Movement

This event featured a panel of formerly incarcerated Black women who are leading the fight for justice. The speakers discussed their work to empower justice-involved women and their efforts to build a more equitable future for those impacted by the system of mass incarceration. This event was hosted by Dr. Talitha LeFlouria and students from her Black Women and Mass Incarceration undergraduate seminar at The University of Texas at Austin.

Welcome and Introductions
