

Business and Professional Women's Group of
The Phi Beta Kappa Alumnae in New York

695 Park Avenue,
New York 21, N. Y.,
May 28, 1948.

To the Members of the Business and Professional Women's Group.

Dear Fellow-Members:

The Business and Professional Women's Group will hold its last meeting of the current academic year on Tuesday, June 8, at 6:30 P.M., in the Faculty Lunch-Room, Hunter College, 68th Street and Lexington Ave.

The program will include an election (so-called, pseudo, quasi, soidisant), and a speech by a member of the Hunter Chapter, Professor Alice E. Kober of the Brooklyn College Classics Department. Professor Kober has won an international reputation for her work in the attempts, as fascinating as a detective story, to unlock the riddle of Minoan, the language of ancient Crete. That her talk will be entertaining as well as stimulating is suggested by the title which she has given it, "Minoan in One Easy Lesson, or How Not to Decipher an Unknown Language".

The price of the dinner (including tip) will be $1.85. Reservations and (if necessary) cancellations should reach us by Monday morning, June 7, at the latest.

Yours cordially,

(Signed)

E. Adelaide Hahn,
Chairman.
