

HUNTER COLLEGE

OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK

695 PARK AVENUE
NEW YORK 21, N. Y.

Department of Classics

February 1, 1957.

Professor Emmett L. Bennett, Jr.,
Box 1967, Yale Station,
New Haven, Conn.

Dear Professor Bennett:

How fortunate it is, and how happy I am, that you are not being invited to Paris this year! And how grateful I am that you are graciously consenting to serve as our Earle Lecturer! We think that March 22 would probably be the most desirable date, and I am very glad that it suits you. Since we shall want to do some publicity work, I hope you will be able to let us have the title of your lecture reasonably soon; but I can certainly allow you leeway of a fortnight.

I trust you will join us at a little informal dinner at College right after the lecture. Will you please let me know whether you want to catch a train back to New Haven at some particular hour so that we may be sure to be through with dinner in time to enable you to do this? Also, please tell me whether you prefer meat or fish at dinner.

With cordial greetings to Mrs. Bennett, I remain

Yours very sincerely,

E. Adelaide Hahn
