Dear Karl, -

Every 80 years you can count on some "good conduct" medals,

Nice while it lasts. Having been suspect for 50 years (like the younger generation is now) I take it in stride. Can it mean one is no longer dangerous? Well, I'm writing some songs, and now "Canons for two flutes, Six Short Sonatas for Piano (Bright Beltzer) are recorded for Serenus (December)

My book "The ~~Odyssey~~ Odyssey of an American Composer" (my autobiography) is due

Dec. 8 - Scribner's. Get the bookstore to order. You're mentioned if the editors don't remove it!

Glad things go well for you, OK,
- here too. Write once in a while.
Greetings, Otto
