 - a. A.R. 13 – In support of the Implementation of Sexual Assault Prevention and Self Defense Education for New Student Curriculum
 - i. The rate of sexual assault on campus of women, men, and TGQN students is very high at UT. Many of these assaults occur during the student's first year experience, which is why AR 13 will support an initiative to help potential victims defend themselves in a sexual assault case. This will be done through implementing self defense curriculum in new student orientation, so students will have information of how to defend themselves prior to the first day of class. UTPD offers a free, self-defense course in the form of physical training at their facilities, which can be complemented by this self-defense curriculum for new students that will make self-defense training more accessible and comprehensive for all students at UT. Send to Student Affairs
