Dear Bennett,

Palmer, in conversation yesterday, mentioned that the Ashmolean Museum had received three magnificent film strips of the tablets : 1) the earlier Pylos tablets 2) the later Pylos tablets 3) all the Knossos tablets. I understood him to say that they had come through your agency, and had indeed been asked for at the colloque at Gif.

By some oversight Michael Ventris forgot to mention to us the possibility of getting these photographs. Is it too late to think about it now? If it isn't, the Institute would be very grateful indeed to be allowed to buy a set.

I hope to be writing again shortly.

Yours sincerely,

Eric Palmer
