Dear Dr. Bennett,

Following our recent correspondence, I asked the British School in Athens to obtain for me photographs of the following Pylos tablets: Ae 27, no. 997, Fr 1223. The British School made a request to the National Museum in Athens, who in turn referred them to Professor Blegen, who now writes to the British School to say that I ought to get them from you. I should be grateful if you would send me photographs of these tablets, or alternatively let me know where they can be obtained, without further ado.

Yours sincerely,
