Dear Appropriations Committee:

Greetings from the Multicultural Information Center! We would like to take this opportunity to create a tradition on campus ouerely dedicated to the celebration of diversity. In this spirit, The "U.S. Department of Education and the President's Initiative for One America" identifies October 10-17, 2000 as the Campus Week of Dialogue.

In response to this Presidential Initiative, the Multicultural Information Center has planned a series of activities to acknowledge this important message of diversity awareness. Attached is a tentative schedule of events and budgetary needs for this week.

We would also like your help to make this week a part of The University of Texas tradition. As a kick-off to this important week, we would like to bring a very special program to our campus. This program, titled "The Affairs of Race in America: A Conversation in Black and White," addresses the issue of racial identity in the United States, featuring two descendants of Thomas Jefferson having a dialogue about racial identity and the culture that unites all of us as Americans. Attached is a detailed outline of our funding request.

Our goal is to unite the campus community. With inspiration and support from Student Government, and collaborative efforts from the rest of the campus community, this week will certainly be a success. We look forward to working with you to make this dream come true on our campus.

Sincerely,

Shilpa Motwani
