RETURN OF THE PRIME MINISTER

The Prime Minister, accompanied by the Foreign Secretary and the Chief of the Imperial General Staff, arrived back in this country at daylight this morning.

The Prime Minister flew a week ago from the United States to Gibraltar to visit General Eisenhower's headquarters at Algiers.

Here he was joined by Mr Eden. Together they visited Tunis and the British and United States Armies in North West Africa.

Yesterday Admiral Cunningham, Commander in Chief Mediterranean gave a luncheon at which Generals Giraud and de Gaulle and the whole of the new French Committee for National Liberation met the Prime Minister and the Foreign Secretary. The proceedings were most cordial.
