

THE UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

Inter-Office Memorandum

TO Dr. Clanton Williams
DEPT. Vics-President, Academic Affairs
SUBJECT Applicant for teaching position

FROM H. B. Stenzel
DATE March 2, 1956

Dr. Bob F. Perkins, now teaching in the Geology Department of Southern Methodist University, states that: "I understand that in the Geology Department members are encouraged to teach and to do research in their particular fields of interest, whereas in my present position research interests are not especially encouraged".

He wishes to apply for a position in our department. He gives the following persons as references:

Dr. Lewis B. Kellum, Director Museum of Paleontology, University of Mich.
Dr. Claude W. Hibbard, Prof. of Geol., Mus. of Paleontology, Univ. of Mich.
Dr. Henry van der Schalie, Prof. of Zoology, Mus. of Zoology, Univ. of Mich.
Dr. John W. Harrington, Prof. of Geol., Southern Methodist Univ., Dallas
Dr. Lloyd Shimmers, Prof. of Biology & Director of Herbarium, Southern Methodist University, Dallas.

Please ask these gentlemen to give you their confidential opinion of Dr. Perkins.

CC: Dean Sawin, Dean Daniels
