A.R. 11 A & M vs. Texas

The Students' Association
The University of Texas at Austin

WHEREAS: The University of Texas has been ranked as a "first tier" institution, and
WHEREAS: Texas A&M has been ranked a "second tier" institution (U.S. News & World Report) which wishes to emulate the institutions of higher caliber, and
WHEREAS: The University of Texas boasts a 64-31-5 record against the fightin' Texas Aggies, and the Texas Longhorns will only perpetuate the misery imposed on our College Station counterparts, and
WHEREAS: This years Texas v. Texas A&M football game will be played at Memorial Stadium, where a rowdy crowd of 77,000 await your demise, and
WHEREAS: The Texas Longhorn football team is ready to travel to the Cotton Bowl, and the hindrance of the Aggies, which only stand in their way, will be laid to waste, and
WHEREAS: The nation, and ABC-TV, will miss out on The Texas Aggies being merely Another stop Before Cotton, and
WHEREAS: The University of Texas Students' Association wishes to promote campus-wide joy by beating the hell outa' those brain-washed, NCAA violatin', no good mascot-havin', crew-cut wearin', all dressed up in white and yellin', "WOOP" screamin', alcohol voucher fakin', silly tradition havin', Cotton Bowl chokin', bonfire buildin' military neophytes in College Station, and
WHEREAS: The student body presidents are representative of these campus-wide sentiments, therefore be it

RESOLVED: That the student body president of the losing school wear the opposing school's sweat-shirt of choice (to be provided by the opposing school) for one full day; the student body president must pose in his/her "loser's regalia" for a photo opportunity by both schools' newspapers. The losing student body president will display the opponents "hand sign" (Horns) during said photo opportunity.
