Dear Dr. Daniel:

Thank you for the safe return of my Ms., the Lydian Index. I am sorry that you could not find it worth publishing. The points you mentioned in your letter had occurred to me, and my preface does point out these. Perhaps I should have given a fuller discussion of my reasons.

Although I may change my mind later, at present I believe that I can make no serious improvement in the Index as it stands. However, I wish to thank you for the kind attention you have paid to the Ms.

Sincerely yours,

Donald C. Swanson
