AR 9 Calling Upon the Administration of the University of Texas at Austin to restrict smoking from certain areas on campus

WHEREAS: The appearance of the University of Texas campus should project a beauty that coincides with the University's mission to improve lives for the benefit of society

WHEREAS: The appearance of the campus should be clean for the myriad of visitors from other nations, states, cities

WHEREAS: The seventeen organizations that have participated in the Adopt-An-Acre program have discovered an overwhelming amount of cigarette butts blanketing the campus

WHEREAS: Cigarette butts are hard for the Physical Plant Ground Services to remove; therefore cigarette butts are overlooked and thus remain on the grounds for long periods of time

BE IT RESOLVED the Administration of The University of Texas at Austin act Accordingly to this resolution and restrict smoking from the South Mall, Terrace of the Main Building, The Biological Species (Turtle) Pond, the East Mall, and the LBJ
Fountain green

Sponsors: Representative Norwood (one year At Large)
