

UNIFIED TIME IN EAST AFRICA

East African time is being advanced at midnight on July 31, by 15 minutes to conform to zone time which, in this case, is three hours fast on Greenwich Mean Time.

The present standard time, two-and-three quarter hours fast on G.M.T., was introduced in Kenya, Uganda, Tanganyika and Zanzibar on January 1, 1937.

COLONIAL OFFICE PRESS SECTION