Dear Emmett:

Thank you for your note. Glad to hear that there are responses from those who receive the report on the Wingspread colloquium.

In Princeton, New Jersey, last summer Adrienne and I ran into the Clagetts. We were there depositing our son with faculty friends before taking off for Europe and the Soviet Union.

Delighted to know that John Chadwick is with you, and will this be for long? Do you think we might persuade him to come down and give a talk to an audience made up mainly of appropriate faculty from colleges hereabouts?

Cordially yours,

Leslie Paffrath
