

Administrative deposit of works to UT Digital Repository

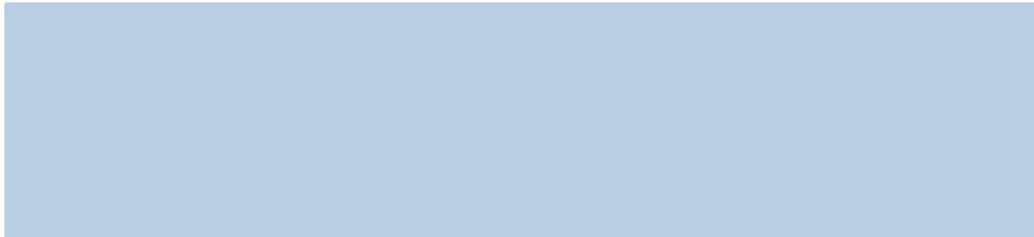

Check all that apply:

This work's author is or was a University faculty member, student, or staff member;

The article is already available through open access at;

The public license is specified as;

The Libraries makes the deposit as a matter of fair use (for scholarly, educational, and research purposes), and to preserve the work and further secure public access to the works of the University