DIRECTOR APPOINTED FOR BRITISH FILM SERVICE IN UNITED STATES

George Archibald, J.P., Deputy Regional Commissioner for the Midland Region, and a well-known figure in the film world, has resigned. He will shortly proceed to the U.S. where he has been appointed Director of the British Film Service. The British Film Service is responsible for all British Government film activities in that country.

Mr. Archibald is expected to spend a short time with Mr. Bernstein who will then return to his duties in this country.
