

23/9/43 - No. 11

CANADIAN NURSES ARRIVE IN BRITAIN

The largest group of Canadian Nursing Sisters ever to leave Canada has arrived safely at a British port.

They came to supplement nursing staffs of medical services for the Canadian Army Overseas.

The nurses arrived in a convoy which included large reinforcements for the Canadian Army Overseas. All arms and services were represented.

CANADIAN MILITARY HEADQUARTERS