

HYDROGEOLOGIC ATLAS OF SOUTHWEST TRAVIS COUNTY CENTRAL TEXAS

Brian B. Hunt¹, Lane P. Cockrell¹, Robin H. Gary¹, Jackie M. Vay¹, Vicky Kennedy², Brian A. Smith¹, and Justin P. Camp¹

¹ Barton Springs/Edwards Aquifer Conservation District

² Travis County Transportation and Natural Resources Development Services

*BSEACD Report of Investigations 2020-0429
April 2020*

A collaborative groundwater study by the
Barton Springs/Edwards Aquifer Conservation District and Travis County

Barton Springs/Edwards Aquifer Conservation District Board of Directors

Mary Stone
Precinct 1

Blayne Stansberry, President
Precinct 2

Blake Dorsett, Secretary
Precinct 3

Bob Larsen
Precinct 4

Craig Smith, Vice President
Precinct 5

Travis County Judge and Commissioners

Sarah Eckhardt
County Judge

Jeff Travillion
Precinct 1

Bridgid Shea
Precinct 2

Gerald Daugherty
Precinct 3

Margaret Gómez
Precinct 4

Table of Contents

Sections

Executive Summary	1
1. Introduction and Study Area	2
2. Regional Tectonics, Paleogeography, and Depositional History	6
3. Study Area Hydrostratigraphy	10
4. Geophysical Logs	13
5. Geologic Basemap	18
6. Hydrogeologic Investigations	20
7. Geologic Cross Sections	26
8. Structure and Isopach Maps	31
9. Travis County Multiport Monitor Well	40
10. Wells and Pumping	44
11. Groundwater Flow	49
12. Groundwater Hydrographs	55
13. Surface and Groundwater Interactions	58
14. Groundwater Chemistry	62
15. Aquifer Properties and Availability	67
16. Hydrogeologic Areas	73
17. Conclusions and Future Work	76
18. References Cited	78

Cover Photo

Aerial drone photograph of Hamilton Pool, Hamilton Pool Preserve, Travis County, TX. Photo taken by Lt. Adam Griggs, Lake Travis Fire Rescue, on 3/16/2019.