

Student Government Appropriations Application

AP 50

Organization name: Texans for Israel and Hillel

Contact's name: Amalia Donde

contact phone: 476-0125

contact email: tfi@www.utexas.edu

SG Representative sponsoring you:

Date project will be held: Monday, March 6th 2000

Expected attendance: 100-150

Date of first anticipated purchase: February 10th 2000

Brief project description: Linda Gradstein is the Jerusalem correspondent for National Public Radio and has ten years of experience covering the Middle East from Israel, Egypt, Jordan and Iraq. She has won awards for her reporting on the assassination of Israeli Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin and the 1991 Gulf War. In her talk on March 6th, Ms. Gradstein will address the Israeli-Palestinian peace process as well as the realities of reporting from the Middle East, both as an American and as a woman.

Project expenses:

Honorarium			$2000.00
Airfare			800.00
Sound equipment			28.00
Accommodations and meals			181.00 ← 161
Publicity
	Posters	$75 \times 11 \times 17 = 8.25$	100.00
	Flyers	- $5 Copies	50.00
Total			$3159.00

Funds raised (include all revenue, secured or anticipated):

We are applying for funds from the following:

College of Communication	Women's Resource Center
- Department of Journalism	Cabinet of College Council
- Department of Radio-TV-Film	Hillel International Center
College of Liberal Arts	Texas Union CoSponsorship Review Board
- Department of Middle Eastern Languages and Cultures
- Center for Middle Eastern Studies

Amount requested from SG: $359.00

Description of what SG will buy for you: equipment rental, accommodations, publicity.

Vendors:

Air transportation: to be determined.

Accommodations: Governor's Inn: $70 (plus tax) per two nights' stay, meals.

Meals and publicity: to be determined