

26/4/42 - No. 3

Air Ministry No. 6779

AIR MINISTRY AND MINISTRY OF HOME SECURITY COMMUNIQUE

Last night there was enemy activity over the West and South of England and the North East coast of Scotland.

The raiding was mostly directed against two towns in the West of England in one of which casualties and damage were rather heavy.

In the other town there was some damage and a number of casualties.

Bombs which were dropped in the North East of Scotland caused damage in one town and a small number of casualties.

Elsewhere there was very little damage and no casualties have been reported.

Four enemy aircraft were destroyed.
